Policy Title: Working with Children Check and Child Protection Policy Owner: Director, Human Resources
Keywords: Working with Children; WWC; Child Protection Policy Code: PL194 [hr171]

1. INTENT
The Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Act 2004 (“the WWC Act”) requires a compulsory criminal record check for certain people working with children in Western Australia. This check is referred to as a Working with Children Check (“WWC check”).

This policy sets out Edith Cowan University’s (“the University”) obligations under the WWC Act and describes the University’s approach to the protection of children with whom University members interact in the course of their employment or study.

2. ORGANISATIONAL SCOPE
This policy applies to any member of the University, including staff, students, council members, a related visitor or a volunteer who works in connection with children on University business (“child-related work”), for whom an exemption does not apply.

4. POLICY CONTENT

4.1 Principles

As both an employer and an education provider, the University is required to assign responsibilities and implement procedures necessary to:

- a) provide for the efficient administration in relation to WWC checks;
- b) receive the employer notices advising the result of a WWC check;
- c) maintain sufficient records for the purposes of the WWC Act;
- d) otherwise ensure compliance with employer obligations under the WWC Act;
- e) provide guidance so that children are protected in the delivery of the University’s teaching, learning and research.

4.2 Obligations

[PL194 / hr171, Working with Children Check and Child Protection]
a) The University is exempt from obligations under the WWC Act in relation to contact with its own students;

b) Under Section 22 of the WWC Act, the University must not employ a person in child-related work:

i. on more than five days in a calendar year unless the person holds, or has applied for, an assessment notice by the first day of starting child-related work;

ii. if it is aware that the person has a conviction or pending charge for a Class 1 or Class 2 offence and the person does not have a current assessment notice or a current application that is still being assessed;

iii. if it is aware that the person holds a current negative notice or interim negative notice;

iv. if it is aware that the person has withdrawn his or her application for a WWC check.

c) The University must

i. notify the Working with Children Screening Unit (or an Approved Screening Agency) in writing as soon as practicable once it is notified of a relevant change of criminal record by an employee or volunteer in child-related work (Section 29(2) of the WWC Act); and

ii. demonstrate compliance with the WWC Act if required to do so by the Working with Children Screening Unit or an Approved Screening Agency (Section 42(3) of the WWC Act).

d) A member of the University, a related visitor or a volunteer working on University business must not carry out child-related work;

i. unless the person holds, or has applied for, a WWC check;

ii. if the person has been issued with a negative notice or interim negative notice;

or

iii. if the person has been convicted of a Class 1 offence that was committed when he or she was an adult.

e) A member of the University, a related visitor or a volunteer working on University business carrying out child-related work must:

i. advise the University (and, if an application for a WWC check is pending, the Working with Children Screening Unit) of a relevant change of criminal record as soon as practicable after it occurs; and

ii. cease work immediately if convicted of a Class 1 offence that has been committed as an adult.

f) Penalties of up to $60,000 and 5 years imprisonment may apply in relation to offences under the WWC Act.
a) Guidelines (under revision) are provided under this policy in relation to:

i. the efficient administration of University WWC checks, including application procedures, methods of payment and the receipt and method of dealing with employer notices;

ii. the record-keeping obligations of the responsible officers;

iii. the coordination of the University’s responsibilities under the WWC Act; and
